

End of Sale Announcement for the Protectli Vault FW6C

January 31, 2023

Protectli is announcing the End of Sale for the FW6C. The End of Sale date for these products is January 31, 2023 or until supplies are depleted. All products will continue to receive the standard 1-year warranty support from the time of purchase. All extended warranties will be honored for the duration of the warranty period. Protectli will continue to offer support beyond the warranty period, but possible repairs or replacements may result in a different model.

Best alternative model to the FW6C is the FW6D:
